

CLOSURE NOTICE

Dear Valued Clients and Stakeholders

Please be advised that the Johannesburg Labour Centre has permanently ceased operations at the current premises, and the Centre has relocated from this building. Clients and stakeholders will be advised of the new date of the opening of the Labour Centre location and arrangements in due course.

Throughout the duration of our temporary closure, our client support services will remain active albeit with limited functionality. Our team will be reachable on 079 516 8808 and 082 563 3966

Clients in and around Johannesburg are advised to access services at the nearest Labour offices. Scan the QR code to access the nearest offices and their contact numbers.

Clients who are unable to travel are encouraged to make use of the department's online services available at www.labour.gov.za.

The reopening date will be announced on our website www.labour.gov.za and all our social media platforms (facebook: Department of Employment and Labour, X: @deptoflabour and Instagram: employmentandlabour).

The Management sincerely apologise for any inconvenience this may cause and appreciate your understanding during this time.
